Of this $1,309.50 has been paid for Foreign Mission Specials, and has not passed through the hands of our Conference Missionary Treasurer.

We earnestly entreat our pastors and people to pay their missionary assessments in full by March 1st. We have had to borrow money to meet our first quarters' drafts, and without early payments we can not be able to pay the second quarter and can not borrow to meet this need.

We call attention to the disciplinary requirement of the Missionary Committee and the Every-Member-Campaign.

We regret that the missionary campaign committee and the committee on evangelism could not be appointed in time to be enrolled in the minutes.

The Board requests the Bishop to appoint Glenn Flinn Conference Missionary Secretary.

The Board requests the Bishop to appoint John E. Green, W. G. Harbin and C. E. Mock Conference Missionary Evangelists.

Report of Board of Church Extension

Dear Brethren:

Your Board has carefully considered all the business coming before us, and have found ourselves very much embarrassed by the overwhelming amount of applications for aid and the meager amount of available funds with which to meet them. The amount of the application for aid to churches total $3229.00 donations, and $850.00 in loans.

And for parsonages $2925.00 donations, and $1450.00 loans. The available funds received on assessment were for churches, $1989.50 and for the parsonage, $679.00, while our available Conference Loan Funds was $990.46. With this meager amount you will see that it was impossible to give aid to all of those very worthy places.

We have considered with pleasure the report of the General Secretary, Dr. W. F. McMurray and are glad to note that the quadrennium just closed has been by far the best in the 32 years history of the General Board.

The General Loan Fund now exceeds $560,000 and the Conference Loan Funds exceeds $60,000.

We heartily join in the recommendations of our last General Conference to press on to the $1,000,000.

The Smith-Garrison Loan Funds of this Conference amounts to $2942.99.

We call upon the brethren to observe the first Sunday in April as our Conference Loan Day and thereby help to increase this home fund with which we are doing so much good.

We would also urge upon the Pastors to place the Birthday Jars in the Sunday schools so as to augment the Sunday school loan fund.

We would also call your attention to the new law of our discipline, paragraph 397, Article 11, and paragraph 399, Article 13, and urge that these Boards be organized and conformed to the law wherever practicable.

The General Board has assessed this Conference $11,640. for the ensuing year which has been distributed to the Districts. (See Assessments).

Your Board has received on assessments $6598.21, and have remitted to the General Board $3299.10, leaving in the hands of your Board, $3299.10.

We have made the following appropriations for churches:

Report of the Board of Education

The Board of Education submits the following report:

We have carefully noted the official communication referred to us by Dr. Stonewall Anderson. It calls attention to certain legislation by the last General Conference, in accordance with which we recommend that every effort be put forth by our Pastors to collect the entire educational assessment in full, including the sum of $3686.00, assessed upon this Conference by the General Board. We endorse the suggestion that a conference composed of all the educational secretaries be held during the present quadrennium. We approve, with emphasis, the utterance of the general secretary, "That it is no longer possible for the church to conduct her educational work as a side issue, and in a haphazard fashion. It must occupy a place in the very center of her program, whatever its cost; we can not retreat nor retrench, but must enlarge."

We also had a statement from the Educational Commission appointed by the last General Conference with power to establish and maintain schools of Theology for the church, and to determine the advisability of one or more institutions or higher grade, of the rank of a University.

Our hearts are stirred by the warning contained in this paper anent the present day tendency to secularize education in all its branches. We warmly approve the ringing assertion that the church has a right, and is duty bound to conduct higher institutions of learning in harmony with the ideals of the Christian religion. We repudiate the charge of narrow sectarianism brought against such institutions, and we are conducting, and shall ever conduct, such institutions as shall "encourage a freedom of thought as liberal as the limitations of truth itself." We rejoice in the successful achievements already wrought by this commission, as evidenced in the establishment of a Theological school at Atlanta, Ga., with adequate equipment, an endowment of a half million dollars, and the selection of a faculty of scholarly religious men, who are teaching at least 60 young ministers, and, we consider these achievements in so short a time a miracle of the modern church.

Considering other plans, not yet consummated, which this school has on foot, we dare to trust that in a few years we shall have there an institution which shall compare favorably with the leading Universities of the Christian church.

We also express our gratification that this commission has adopted Southern Methodist University as the University of the church west of the Mississippi, and we favor such action, by this Conference, as shall meet the conditions of the General Conference for the ownership and control of this institution.

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY.

A detailed report of this institution was made by President Hyer. The report reviews the school from its beginning to the present time, and is very encouraging, but also presents to the Methodists of Texas a great task. The Medical Department of this school assumes a more satisfactory phase than at the last Conference. The Theological Department will open in September, 1915, and will have not less than six full professors. The endowment thus far collected from the General Board of Education is exclusively for the department of Arts and Sciences, and therefore, the Theological Department is entirely dependent upon conference assessments.

SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY.

From the reports submitted by this institution we are sure that from every standpoint the school has had the best year of its history, enrolling in all departments 1013 students, 485 of whom were of college grade, which exceeds all previous enrollments in college grade by 42, and is greater than any enrollment by any other college in the church. The average scholarship, and the general conduct and spirit of the student body has been high.

ALEXANDER COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

This institution opened with 135 matriculants in all departments. Our teachers in the academic department are all college graduates. There are eight young preachers in attendance. Notwithstanding the financial stringency the outlook is hopeful.

Your Board endorses the proposition looking to the establishment of a Bible Chair in the State University, which has in its student body more than 700 Methodist students, and this to be done by the co-operation of all the Texas Conferences. This Conference is asked to elect R. W. Adams as trustee of said Bible Chair, and to place upon him the task of raising the $500.00 necessary.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We make the following recommendations:

That J. B. Turrentine be appointed president of A. C. I.; that Frank Seay be appointed professor in S. W. U.; and James Kilgore be elected Conference Secretary of Education.

The Bishop is asked to appoint Nathan Powell student to the University of Chicago, and Walton Day and L. F. Jewell students to S. W. U.

The Conference is asked to elect J. H. Bolin and Sam D. Goodson trustees of A. C. I., to fill the expired terms of John C. Box and John H. Bolton; E. M. Decker to fill the unexpired term of Joe Adams, resigned; that H. C. Willis be elected to fill the unexpired term of W. W. Watts; to elect C. W. Boone to fill the vacancy created by the death of Wm. Wiess as trustee for S. W. U.; that I. F. Betts be elected to fill the unexpired term of S. R. Hay, transferred, and that James Kilgore, L. B. Elrod, I. F. Betts and R. M. Kelley succeed themselves as trustees of S. W. U.

Report of Sunday School Board

We, your Sunday School Board respectfully submit the following report:

The reports which have come to us from the general office show a very gratifying increase in all our Sunday School periodicals, and also indicate a prosperous condition of the Sunday School work throughout the Church.

It gives us great pleasure to report that the Sunday School work in our Conference is making substantial progress.

The Board desires to call particular attention to the chapter on Sunday Schools in the new discipline, especially paragraph 264, which provides that all missionary offerings, regular and special, made in the Sunday School, shall be sent to the Conference treasurer and forwarded by him as a separate fund to the Board of Missions in order that 10 per cent of the aggregate of all offerings made in the Sunday School for Missions, may be turned over by the Board of Missions, to the General Sunday School Board to be administered by that Board for Sunday School work at home and abroad.

Paragraph 265 provides that the Children's Day offering shall be equally divided between the General Sunday School Board and the Conference Board, except that, in case the Conference Board has employed a Field Secretary during the past year it may retain 75 per cent of the offering for the time of his service.

We note with much pleasure that the Wesley Bible Class Department under the efficient superintendency of Dr. Bulla has made marvelous progress during the past quadrennium. There are now 4300 enrolled classes, with a membership of 130,000. More than 35,000 were added to the membership of our Wesley Bible Classes during the year just closing. We urge the co-operation of all our Pastors and Superintendents with this Providential Agency of our Sunday School work so that it may be carried to the highest possible success.

Your Board being unable to get the Conference to assume any assessment for Field Secretary, employed on its own responsibility, W. E. Hawkins, who has held during the year 65 institutes, delivered 323 lectures to 17,900 people and as all of those with whom he has been are willing to testify has done very efficient work.

Your attention is called to the new periodicals to be issued by the Sunday School Board and to the changes in periodicals already in existence. Your Board greatly desires that at least three copies of the Missionary Messenger shall go each month to each Sunday School Superintendent in our Conference, and to this end has made the necessary appropriations covering the expense so that each pastor and superintendent will get a copy each month.

We rejoice in the results in the first years' campaign for the establishment and endowment of the Department of Religious Education in Southern Methodist University. We realize that in this is the fulfillment of the hope and prayers of the church for many years for a ministry and laity well trained for efficiency in all lines of church work. Every phase of the course of work in the department is practical and inspiring.

The campaign results indicate that in a very quiet way, chiefly through the office of the University and the efforts of pastors, more than $30,000.00 has been subscribed during the past year by the Sunday School classes of the state. In this our Texas Conference has had due share. It is necessary, however, that the amount be much larger in order that the department be self-sustaining, and we earnestly urge that the campaign continue during the next year, to the end that every Sunday School in the Conference may have a part in the establishment of this department. We feel that the schools owe it to themselves to invest in this department, so that students may be inspired to equip themselves for efficient service.

We earnestly recommend that the campaign continue and that the Texas Conference give every encouragement to this important department of our University.

At the suggestion of the Bishop and his cabinet, we request that Rev. W. G. Harbin be appointed Sunday School Field Secretary for the Texas Conference.

W. F. DAVIS, Chairman.

M. L. LINDSEY, Secretary.

Epworth League Report

We, your Committee, submit the following report:

After canvassing the field, we find that the Epworth League, like the Sunday School is indispensable to the development of the young people of our Church. Properly managed it occupies a place second to none, except the preaching of the word. We therefore urge that our pastors give renewed emphasis to this work. Our ideal should be a League in every Church.

The recent General Conference has given valuable assistance to our League by re-organizing and simplifying the work. Your attention is called to the Constitution of the Annual Conference Epworth League Board now appearing in the discipline for the first time. Closer co-operation with the central office and a more helpful relation to the Conference Epworth League Board are made possible thereby.

The Epworth Era is self-supporting, and with a circulation of 16,000 is meeting the needs of this department of our work.

The financial showing for the year is better than ever before. The League's contribution for Missions amounted to over $34,000.00, making a total for the quadrennium of $124,715.23. During the last four years the League has raised for all purposes $301,336.15. A feature of the new financial system is the observance of Epworth League Anniversary Day by an offering for Epworth League extension. The official day is set for the second Sunday in May. We urge upon our pastors the importance of observing this day, the offering to be sent to the Treasurer of the Conference Epworth League Board to be equally divided between the extension work of the Conference and of the central office.

At a meeting of the Epworth League Board of Trustees for the property at Corpus Christi it was decided to retain the encampment at the present location, provided the people of Corpus Christi would raise $10,000.00 and apply to the indebtedness on the property, which amounts to $20,000.00. It was further decided that if the $10,000 was not raised by Corpus Christi the Epworth lands would be sold and another location selected.

We recommend its sale, provided Corpus Christi does not render the assistance specified above.

Your Committee also recommends the confirmation of W. J. Johnson and R. M. Kelley as Trustees of our property there.

We recommend further the endorsement of the following resolutions, which were presented to the Conference Board by a representative of the Epworth League Encampment:

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, it is important that the Epworth League Encampment enlarge the scope of its work so as to include every department of our Church, therefore be it

Resolved, By the Texas Methodist Epworth League in Conference assembled at Epworth-By-the-Sea, July 24, 1914, that the Texas State Sunday School Conference, Woman's Missionary Society and other organizations of our Church in Texas be asked to participate in the work of the Encampment, on equal terms with the Epworth League.

2. That the name of the Encampment be changed to the Texas Methodist Assembly.

3. That the Board of Trustees shall consist of two members from each of the English speaking Conferences of Texas, one from the German Mission Conference, and one from the Texas Mexican Mission. They shall be nominated by the Program Committee and confirmed by the respective Annual Conferences. They shall hold office for four years and shall have entire control of the business management of the Texas Methodist Assembly. When a vacancy in the Board occurs it shall be filled in the manner herein prescribed:

4. Program Committee shall consist of a Dean to be selected by the Board of Trustees, the President of the State Epworth League, the President of the State Sunday School Conference, a duly accredited representative of the Woman's Missionary Society and a representative of any other State Institution of our Church, which shall be admitted by the Trustees to participation in the enterprise.

5. The Trustees are instructed to re-convey the property and re-organize the enterprise in accordance with the spirit and purpose of this paper, and to report the results of their work, to our next annual meeting.

Report of Orphanage Board

We, your Committee on the Orphanage, beg to submit the following report:

We have had before us the Manager, R. A. Burroughs, and J. M. McCain, Field Secretary, and note with pleasure the prosperity the home under the present administration. There are now in the home 170 children, 75 of these having been received this year and 62 placed in splendid homes. For the lack of room at least 150 children have been turned away from the home. The literary school is doing splendid work under the present principal and assistants, and through the efforts of Brother Burroughs the State and the city of Waco have been persuaded to give to the school for the support of this school $203.00 per month.

The Sunday School is doing nicely, being a graded school and bearing its own expenses, and is well supplied with teachers.

We are glad to learn from the manager that every effort possible is being made to make the home self-supporting, and to some extent they are succeeding. The property is in splendid condition, is clean and the government physician has visited the home this year, and he reports that of the 13 states visited this year, he has found none in a more sanitary condition than ours at Waco.

Your committee recommends that this Conference act in harmony with the request of the Board which is as follows:

Whereas, the Board of Directors of our Methodist Orphanage at Waco, Texas, in annual session, October 8, 1914, after carefully looking into the management of the home, the increased demands upon the Orphanage for caring for the children, and the financial income, unanimously agreed that the present management is wholly inadequate to meet the needs and,

Whereas, the directors agreed that to increase the assessment upon the Conference, would not be advisable at this time; deeming it better to remove the assessment entirely, and thus place the Orphanage on its own merits and,

Whereas, they now request each of the Conferences in Texas to fix a date to be known as "Orphanage Day," upon which day, or as near thereto as practical, each preacher shall present the claim of the Orphanage to his people, publicly, and take a collection for the same. Therefore be it Resolved, first, That we heartily concur with the request of the Board of Managers, and fix from December 20, 1914, to December 20, 1915, or as near thereto as practical, as "Orphanage Day," and that each pastor shall take a collection at that time, and send the full amount collected at once, to the manager of the Orphanage, or to the Conference Treasurer, and in remitting, that the name of the Conference, the Charge, and the pastor shall accompany this remittance.

Resolved, second, That the manager of the Home be requested to publish the amounts from each charge, and the name of the pastor or individual remitting same.

We recommend that Bishop McCoy appoint R. A. Burroughs as Manager of the Home for another year.

Report of American Bible Society Board

Our Church continues to need the American Bible Society as a great co-agent in its Missionary work at home and abroad. The foundations of the kingdom must ever be laid on the solid rock of the scriptures turned into the tongues of the world and put into the homes of the masses. This work the American Bible Society continues to do and with ever increasing efficiency and magnitude. Its total issues of scripture during the year 1913 goes beyond the five million point. Of this number of volumes more than ninety thousand were put into the homes of the Southwest, a large part of these homes being occupied by Mexicans, Bohemians, Germans, French, Italians and Indians. The fruits growing on this tree justify all that has ever been spent on its culture and much more.

This being true, we are prepared to accept with sympathy and interest the Society's appeal for our continued help. Its needs were never greater and we can not afford to do otherwise than abide by our former plans for its support.

Therefore, we recommend that our assessment for this cause remain as it was last year, one thousand dollars, and that it be distributed to the districts according to the regular scale.

L. H. McGEE, Chairman.

GLENN FLINN, Secretary.

Report of Committee on Books and Periodicals

We have read and carefully examined reports from Smith and Lamar, agents of the Publishing House of the M. E. Church, South, from the Texas Christian Advocate, and the Joint Board of Publication.

The agents of the Publishing House make report concerning the state of the business, the Christian Advocate, Epworth Era, and the Methodist Quarterly Review.

The House has had a net increase of $13,589.43 in profits above the profits of the preceding year. Its volume of business is steadily increasing. The Dallas House is flourishing and stands closely related to the success of Texas Methodism. We ask all our Pastors to speak a good word for it, and when advisable, to observe Good Literature Day, preaching an appropriate sermon.

The report shows that the Epworth Era has a circulation of 16,000, and during the year has met the cost of publication.

The Christian Advocate has increased in circulation some, now having 16,500 on its subscription list. The number of subscriptions to it on any charge in our midst might easily be doubled by a little effort on the part of the pastor.

The Methodist Review goes to 4200 subscribers, is a splendid magazine for all Methodists, and is published at a profit to the House.

The House publishes a long list of the very best books and a useful catalogue of these is ready for free distribution. The pastors should see that the homes of our people are supplied with this catalogue.

We are all pleased to know that the House has brought to our superannuates in Southern Methodism the sum of $15,000 this year, and that this is an increase of $5000 over the preceding year.

Our own great paper, The Texas Christian Advocate, is flourishing as never before. It shows an increase of 2000 subscribers during the past year. Its business management is acceptable to both preachers and people. As we already know, Dr. G. C. Rankin was re-elected Editor and is now in his seventeenth year in that responsible position. We heartily endorse and commend his splendid management of the paper, his quick leadership, his fearless and uncompromising stand on all matters moral, religious and civil.

Respectfully submitted,

P. T. RAMSEY, Chairman.

For the Committee.

Spiritual State of the Church

In looking into the spiritual state of the church, we are putting our finger on the pulse of Methodism.

Your Committee is fully prepared to congratulate the Conference, and to join in thanksgiving to God, the great "Head of the Church."

Revival fires never burned more brightly, conversions were never more genuine, and our reports were never more encouraging. Especially is this true in the reports from our young preachers. Also our Sunday Schools are great feeders for the Church, and the spiritual power of both Sunday school and Church is a matter for much congratulation.

While this is true, still there remains much to be done. There is everywhere a pleasure-loving element among the people. Railroad excursions and Sunday theatres furnish temptations for these. In mistaken zeal, sometimes the Church is tempted to furnish a degenerate type of fun-provoking or sensational service as a counter attraction. Your Committee would not enter into judgment, and we are happy to state that our own ministry is comparatively, if not absolutely, free from censure at this point; but for the sake of the younger men of our Conference we would sound a note of warning. We would call to our remembrance that the old, heart-renewing, life-transforming religion of our fathers is the hope, and the only hope, of the world. In addition to this element, many business men are absorbed in money making and many society leaders busy with pleasure and both indifferent or careless to gospel claims.

If the best ends are earnestly to be sought, and if the richest results are to come to God and His Church, then, out of many things, let your Committee be understood when we sound only one note distinctly and respectfully.

In practically every case the pastor is the key to every situation. Then as we pray for and covet a forward movement in our Zion, let us ourselves lead the way and take the first forward step.

Few of us have done all that we might have done. Few of us have done wisely all that we have done. Few of us are all that we might be. Let us do our very best.

More pastoral oversight might be had, and a deeper spiritual tone might be given to our pastoral work. By prayer, more earnest and more constant, and by harder and better directed study, we could improve the spirit and increase the force and power of our pulpits, to God's glory and the salvation of the people.

Let every man among us be more fully a hard worker and more fully a Spirit-led and a Spirit-filled man; and let every pulpit be more a Spirit-baptized pulpit; a place of heavenly authority and a throne of power.

This is one of the things that might be done, and the thing that we can do. Christ gave his highest praise to a woman, and to that woman he said, "She hath done what she could."

Respectfully submitted,

COMMITTEE.

Sabbath Observance

We greatly rejoice in the sanctity of the Christian Sabbath; for its boon of rest to weary toilers, and for its blessings of worship to yearning souls. Our natures demand for their highest development not only that they be exercised in work but in worship as well. Each is equally binding upon every man: "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy; six days shalt thou labor." The institution of the Sabbath is as old as Creation; the command to keep it holy is as ancient as the Law, and the necessity for its existence is as deep as the needs of man. To ignore the law of the Sabbath is to defy the authority of God and to undermine the foundations of our Christian civilization. No nation or country, no community or individual can long survive in violation of this law of God and human life. It rests upon no arbitrary command but upon the very necessity of being. Even animals and machines as well as men demand that a tithe of time shall be devoted to rest. The tension of the bow must at some time be released. "Come ye into the desert apart, and rest awhile" is the Master's sympathetic appeal to His tired disciples and to a weary world. Whosoever he be that profanes the Sabbath by making it a day of toil or by failing to make it a day of worship does so at his own peril. Therefore, would we lift the note of warning against every form of Sabbath desecration such as state or county fairs, Sunday excursions, Sunday base ball, and such like which are so rapidly and really bringing into Christian America the Continental Sabbath. We would cry aloud against the tendency to make it a day of pleasure seeking and recreation, and we would both by precept and example exhort all over whom we have influence that they make it a day of sacred and solemn worship in "Our Father's house." Toward this end we direct our noblest energies and for this our most earnest prayers ascend. For this purpose we will seek to make the temple of God more attractive than the pleasures of sin, "For a day in His courts is better than a thousand." We plead from our pulpits and through the press for a proper regard for this holy day. We shall use it for our own moral and religious culture, and if others will insist upon its abuse to the detriment not only of themselves but others, then as a last resort we will enlist in its defense the strong arm of the law. So shall we preserve the day of God from unholy uses and perpetuate it as a day of worship forever.

S. S. McKENNEY, Chairman.

ALLEN TOOKE, Secretary.

Temperance Report

Your Committee on Temperance beg leave to submit the following report:

The past year has indeed brought important changes in the temperance status in our state. Some of these changes have not been altogether favorable. One of our most wholesome temperance laws has been almost totally impaired. Other conditions that have occurred in the meantime make it somewhat doubtful also as to our immediate relief on this line. These disadvantages, however, are only of a temporary nature, and have been more than counterbalanced by the units of steady progress that have marked our forward movement otherwise. Even the impairment of the above mentioned law, we think will bring a reaction that will vigorously accelerate the elimination of saloons in our state. The large number of counties and precincts that have fallen into the dry column this year is striking evidence of the rapid change of sentiment throughout Texas. Some of the most notorious whisky centers in all our state have relieved themselves of saloons. In addition to this we rejoice over the temperance victories of the recent general election, and believe the same will have a strong influence in our fight in this state.

Your Committee recognizes the saloon as the nucleus of the most powerful social trust confronting the Church. In the very genius of its iniquity it tends to monopolize the social life of the community, and by such means as wine suppers, beer gardens, card parties, ball rooms, and other worse institutions as its social tentacles, gather such powerful hold upon the life of the community as to render the Church almost powerless in reaching the people of our saloon ridden territory.

Therefore, we your Committee, recommend that our preachers continue to wage unrelenting war upon the open saloon as the one great barrier to the progress of our Church.

In this connection we most heartily endorse the work of the Texas Christian Advocate, Home and State, the Baptist Standard, and other Church papers that are doing such valuable temperance work throughout Texas.

Also we would endorse the great work being done by the W. C. T. U. and the Anti-Saloon League of this state.

We would also commend the faithful officers of this state for their diligence and success in extirpating illicit sale of liquor.

Respectfully submitted,

OSCAR W. HOOPER, Chairman.

J. M. SMITH, Secretary.

Report of District Conference Records

Dear Fathers and Brethren: We, your Committee, appointed to examine the District Conference Records, submit the following report:

We have examined the records of Brenham, Houston, Marshall, Navasota, Tyler and Timpson Districts, and offer the following suggestions and corrections:

Brenham District: This record is very neatly and accurately kept.

Houston District: There are some inaccuracies in the writing, there being some words crossed out with marks over which are written other words.

Marshall District: This record is fairly presentable, but the spelling and penmanship are not of the best.

Navasota District: This is a well bound book and well kept. But we fail to find the names of the churches represented by the lay delegates. We find these minutes to be annnotated on the margin, which we think is a good idea.

Tyler District: This record is a model of neatness and accuracy.

Timpson District: We find no mistakes of any importance in this record.

The records of Beaumont, Jacksonville, Marlin and Pittsburg Districts were not before us for examination.

Report of Laymen's Committee.

Bay City, Texas, Nov. 20, 1914. To the Bishop and Members of the Texas Annual Conference: We, your Committee on the Laymen's Missionary Movement, submit the following report:

We admit with shame that we have done but little during the closing year. We again tender our services to the Presiding Elders and pastors of the Conference. In many charges Lay Committees have assisted our pastors in the collections, and from such information as we have been able to gather the charges wherein the laymen have assisted in the collections are advancing in a spiritual, as well as a business way. We hope our Presiding Elders will continue to give us at least some time in our several District Conferences.

A representative of the Conference Committee on Evangelism having appeared before us with a request that the laymen of this Conference finance the campaign for 15,000 accessions to our church during the year 1914-15, we, accordingly, recommend that the sum of $500 be raised independent of church assessments, same to be raised by the laymen in the bounds of the Conference for this purpose; and, further, that same be apportioned between the several districts of this Conference by the Conference and district Lay leaders. This to be raised by the Lay leaders in our several charges under the direction of the pastor and district lay leaders, the power of supervision and control being in the pastor, to the end that no conflict shall arise in any charge.

We have received the communication from the President and General Secretary of our new board on Lay Activities, which we most heartily endorse.

We nominate W. L. Dean for Conference Lay Leader, whose address is Huntsville, Texas.

T. N. GRAHAM, Chairman.

Report of Committee on Evangelism.

The program of the Modern Church must contain three outstanding items, viz.: Evangelism, Social Service and Religious Education; Evangelism for rescue and salvation, religious education for nurture and training, social service for the exercise and development of the saved individual and for the uplift and elevation of society. The greatest of these and most fundamental is Evangelism.

In Evangelism, both religious education and social service find their end and their beginning. The salvation of the soul is at once the best basis and the highest goal for both religious education and social service and the saving of the soul is the work of Evangelism. These considerations make it necessary for us to continue to magnify this work among us and we have every encouragement to do so in the many tokens of God that have rested upon our labors. The annals of our Conference for the past year glow with the records of some of the greatest revivals ever held in our state. The number of accessions to our Church on profession of faith during the year was 6032 and this is the largest number ever received into our Church in like manner during any year.

The time has come for us to go forward as never before. Ours is the vantage ground of past agitation and victory. Ours is the unusual opportunity of a harvest field ripened for God by the unprecedented financial depression that is upon us. Therefore your committee recommends that a forward movement be inaugurated and that its goal be 15,000 accessions to our Church during the year 1914 and 1915. We also recommend that the 5000 of this number be set as a goal to be reached by Easter.

We recommend further that in the pursuit of this campaign, the following items be emphasized:

First. Pastoral Evangelism. Let every pastor be an Evangelist. There is ample room for the itinerant Evangelist but no Pastor should be satisfied to depend wholly on outside help for the evangelistic work in his charge. Let us have more Pastors who hold their own meetings.

Second. Personal Evangelism.* Let our laymen be enlisted as evangelists—personal evangelists. What a harvest would be assured if thousands of our people could be induced to give themselves earnestly to the task of winning even one of their fellows to Christ during the year.

Third. Intercessory Evangelism. Conference wide prayer for our campaign must be constantly emphasized. The great conquests of the Kingdom are the conquests of intercession, and it can not be otherwise with us.

Washington Representative Church.

We, your Committee, appointed at the session of the Conference of 1912, to secure the payment of the pledge of $5,000.00 made by this Conference at that session to the Washington City Representative Church, beg leave to report as follows:

We reorganized November 21, 1914, by the election of the following officers: C. S. Wright, president; C. U. McLarty, secretary; W. J. Johnson, treasurer. These officers are an executive committee of your general committee.

1. Soon after our appointment we held a meeting, and there was present the Secretary of the Commission on the Washington City Representative Church, George S. Sexton, and the $5,000.00 pledged was distributed among the districts and plans set on foot which we hoped would secure the amount in cash and personal obligations at an early date.

2. The report before us at this session of the Conference indicates that $1093.55 of this amount has been secured in cash and subscriptions, leaving a balance to be raised of $3906.45.

3. On Saturday, November 21, your Committee adopted the following: (1). The total amount of $5,000.00 is to be distributed among the districts of the Conference according to the ratio of distribution adopted by the Conference at its Saturday morning session. (2). The amounts paid in cash and subscriptions are to be deducted from the amounts thus distributed, and from the districts from which payment has been made. (3). C. S. Wright, chairman of the committee, was named to have this matter in charge during the present Conference year, to make the distribution referred to above, and to use such measures and means as his judgment approves in securing from the several districts, in cash and good subscription, the amounts apportioned thereto. (4). The executive committee of your general committee, consisting of the president, C. S. Wright, C. U. McLarty and W. J. Johnson, were authorized to act for the committee in all matters pertaining to the successful accomplishment of this task.

In conclusion, we appeal to the brethren of the Conference to make good this pledge. The amount necessary to accomplish this end will not be large from any church, but the call to save our honor as a Conference is emphasized, and the committee earnestly requests that this Conference request the Presiding Elders to co-operate with the executive committee in securing the full subscription for this worthy cause.

Respectfully submitted,

C. S. WRIGHT, Chairman.

Report of Social Service Commission on San Antonio Rescue Home

At the last session of our annual Conference a representative of the Mission Home and Training School, San Antonio, a rescue home for fallen women, came before us with a proposition to make this enterprise, which had been under the control of the West Texas Conference, the enterprise of Texas Methodism. Just what action should be taken was not clear at the time, and the agent of the Mission Home, Rev. J. D. Scott, was promised our good will and co-operation and access to our pulpits as far as practicable.

Further disposition of the case was referred to the newly created Social Service Commission. This Commission has had the whole subject under serious and thorough consideration, but deemed it inadvisable at this time to recommend a final policy with reference to the Home. Owing to the disturbed financial conditions and other enterprises on foot, we ask that the matter be left to our consideration for another year. In the meantime, however, it is essential that the Home be maintained to receive such unfortunate women as could not gain access to our admirable home in Dallas. To this end we recommend that in each pastoral charge so far as practicable the interests of the San Antonio Mission Home and Training School be presented on a Sunday to be chosen by the pastor, and that a collection for the Home be taken.

Appeal

An applicant to the Licensing Committee of the District Conference of the Tyler District, for license to preach, desired the Presiding Elder to examine him under Paragraph 78 of the Discipline, and report his case to the Licensing Committee. The Presiding Elder declined to do so, but on the meeting of the Committee in Marvin Church, Tyler, reported the case to them. Whereupon, Dr. W. F. Andrews, a member of the Committee, submitted in writing the following question of law, to-wit: "Does not the latter clause of Paragraph 78 of the Discipline authorize the Presiding Elder in cases where it is clearly impossible for the applicant to attend the meeting of the Licensing Committee to examine him and report the case to the Committee?"

The Presiding Elder rendered the following decision, NO.

If the clause referred to in Paragraph 78 had included the Licensing Committee it would have said so as in Paragraph 79.

Whereupon Dr. Andrews served notice of appeal to the Bishop at the ensuing Annual Conference at Bay City, Texas, November 18, 1914.

Tyler, Texas, November 15, 1914.

(Signed) J. T. SMITH.

The decision of the Presiding Elder in the above case is sustained.

(Signed) J. H. McCOY, President.

REV. JOHN ADAMS, D. D.

Rev. John Adams, son of William and Susannah Prenter Adams, was born in Patterson, N. J., May 7, 1830, and died in Tyler, Texas, June 3, 1914, being eighty-four years and twenty-six days old. He was descended from good Irish stock. His parents emigrated to Texas in 1840, settling temporarily in Bastrop. In 1843 they moved to Rusk County, where his father located his headright for 640 acres of land, and built his home 13 miles north of Henderson. Here the thirteen year old John grew to manhood. Here seven years later, 1850, he was converted under the ministry of Rev. W. W. Calder, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and here seven years later still, 1857, he was licensed to preach by W. K. Wilson, Presiding Elder. In November of that year he was admitted on trial into the traveling connection by the East Texas Conference at Rusk, Bishop Kavanaugh presiding. From this date he served the Church as pastor and presiding elder, faithfully, intelligently, and efficiently for forty-five years. He filled the following charges: Carthage Circuit, 1858; Jefferson Circuit, 1859; San Augustine Circuit, 1860; Liberty Circuit, 1861; Carthage Circuit, 1862-63; Melrose Circuit, 1864; Henderson Circuit, 1865; Palestine Station, 1866; Palestine District, 1867; Palestine Station, 1868; Palestine and Kickapoo, 1869; Palestine Station, 1870-1-2; Rusk and Stovall Station, 1873; Palestine District, 1874-75-76-77; Starville Circuit, 1878; Palestine District, 1879-80-81-82; Marshall District, 1883-84; Palestine District 1885-86-87; Tyler District, 1888-89-90-91; Marshall District, 1892-93-94-95; Tyler District, 1896-97-98-99; Pittsburg District, 1900-01-02.

This closed his active ministry. The minutes of the Conference of 1902, held at Crockett, contains the following: "At their own request the names of C. H. Smith and John Adams were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the Superannuate relation." For the next twelve years he walked humbly, cheerfully, faithfully, sweetly, among his brethren, showing them how a superannuate could live.

Territorially, Dr. Adams' ministry was confined to twenty-two East Texas counties, in which he spent nine years on circuits; eight in stations; and twenty-nine on districts; serving seven circuits, two stations and four districts; making but thirteen charges in all. Eighteen years of this ministry was spent in Palestine; six in the Station, and twelve on the District. He was one of the Curators of the Southwestern University twenty-five years, for many years a member of the Joint Board of Publication of the Texas Christian Advocate, and five times a member of the General Conference. At the end of it all he wrote: "My love for the Church increases with my advancing years." Viewed from any standpoint, Dr. Adams was truly a great man. He was denied the advantage of the schools, yet mastered their text books, and so completely familiarized himself with the Bible, with theology, science, literature, etc., that the Southwestern University in 1875 conferred on him the honorary degree of Master of Arts; and in 1878, Doctor of Divinity. They were worthily bestowed.

Dr. G. C. Rankin wrote of him: "Doctor Adams was a broad man in his catholicity of spirit. He did not deal in small affairs of idle talk. Large themes engaged his thought and conversation. He had a singularly pure mind and heart. Nothing coarse or vulgar ever escaped his lips, for such matters had no place in his thoughts. He lived on a high plane and breathed a pure atmosphere. His communion with God was clear and unmistakable, and companionship with Christ was a daily joy and experience. He had the evidence of a sound conversion in his bosom, and his growth in grace through his long years, was steady and permanent. He developed into great ripeness of life and character. It was always a benediction to sit at his feet, and learn from him as a teacher of the deep things of God. He had a tender, confiding heart, and a personality as beautiful as that of a cultured woman. He embodied all the genuine elements of a true gentleman, and no whisper was ever uttered against his piety and religion. He had the universal confidence of man. Righteousness was the law of life, and he has left a record as pure as the snow, and as polished as the marble. His very name is a synonym for all that is good and noble and true. The passing of such a man is no ordinary event in the history of a community. It is no wonder that the business houses closed their doors and that the people of Tyler stood with uncovered heads at his grave. And his whole Conference is touched deeply by his death. But he is not, for God has taken him. He closed out a splendid career and the gates stood wide open for his entrance when his royal spirit left its tabernacle of clay."

The writer of this memoir does not hesitate to write Doctor Adams down as a great preacher. He was not blessed with the delivery and voice of the orator, and yet he was an orator. I have heard him when his great, towering, giant body was swayed by the power of God, and his giant intellect staggered under the burden of his own great thoughts; when the defects of delivery and voice were cured or forgot, and when a flood of sacred eloquence that melted, stirred and soothed, swept his audience as with the breath of God far out into the fields of thought and holy emotion they had never known before.

Doctor Adams was happily married in his forty-fifth year. Of it he says: "I was married on January 28, 1876, to Miss Mary Blanche Hale, of Paducah, Ky. God bless her forever. She is one of the most faithful women I ever knew. We have but one child, our son Langston, who now lives in Houston, and is credit man of the Houston Packing Company."

On the morning of his last day on earth, he called his wife to his bedside and told her he would soon go home to heaven; told her what he wished her to do; asked her to telephone for Brother Smith. I went and sat near his side on his bed. His mind was clear and active, but he spoke very weak and spoke with much difficulty. He said: "Bro. Tom, I may not go immediately, but can only hold out a day or so. I want you to conduct my funeral, and have Doctor Andrews assist you. Make the service short. Don't tire the people. I want you to prepare my obituary for the Advocate and the memoir for the Conference, and want you to make a talk at the memorial service." Then he gave me some other directions. Then our talk turned to our years of love, confidence, and fellowship of the past. He pronounced his blessing on me, on my wife and children, and I bade him my last good bye. Next morning, near 3 o'clock, his mind still clear, he called his wife in the old familiar home way: "Marm, Marm, Marm," and grasping her hand tightly, pointed upward and said, "Heaven, eternity," and without an apparent struggle entered into rest.

It is probable that I knew Doctor Adams better than any man now living knew him. We had been closely acquainted for thirty-two years. I knew him in my home, knew him in his home, knew him out in the field of ministerial toil; in the private counsels of the Church; and as I knew him, he had as much in him to praise and less to find fault with than any man I ever knew. After the most careful survey of his life, I write him down as the best man I ever knew. I never knew him to speak an unchaste word, do any unkind deed, or speak harm of any mortal. For years he began or closed all his talks with, and closed his biographical sketch with: "I believe with all my soul that 'God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have eternal life.'"

On the afternoon of Doctor Adams' funeral all the business houses in the city were closed out of respect to his memory. There was a large attendance upon the funeral services, the sermon being preached by Bishop Mouzon. This sermon was a very just estimate of Doctor Adams' life. It would be hard to describe the sermon as delivered. Rev. B. R. Bolton of Jacksonville, Rev. New Harris of Dallas, and other prominent ministers were in attendance.

Our sainted brother is gone from us, and our Conference mourns his absence, but we rejoice that God gave him to us so long. His great, tired body, worn with years, rests in Woodlawn Cemetery in Tyler, Texas. His gentle, refined spirit has joined a mighty host of his old Conference comrades in heaven's land. He was a prince and a mighty man in Zion. "A man sent from God." "An Israelite indeed," and "he walked with God," and is not for God has taken him.

"Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ.
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy.

Soldier of Christ, well done!
Praise be thy new employ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Savior's joy."

J. T. SMITH.

J. T. KIRKPATRICK.

Born at Macon, Ga., March 25, 1866, departed this life at Corrigan, Texas, October 17, 1914. This is the sentence which tells of the beginning and ending of the days upon the earth of Rev. J. T. Kirkpatrick; but between these date lines, is the story of a life of loyal faithful service for God and for men.

Coming with his parents to Texas at the age of eleven years, the following summer, he was soundly converted and received into the membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. When just twenty-one years of age, he was granted license to exhort, and after one year in this relation, being found worthy, he was by the proper authority in our church, given license to preach. He was admitted on trial into the traveling connection at the session of the North Texas Conference of 1891; ordained Deacon by Bishop Hargrove in 1892; ordained Elder by Bishop Hendrix in 1896. In the years following, these charges were served: Redwater Circuit, two years; Dalby Springs, one year; Musgrove, one year; Crockett Circuit, three years; Groveton, one year; Woodville, two years; Burkeville, two years; Livingston, two years; Quitman, two year; Big Sandy, two years; Willard, one year; Corrigan, two years; Appleby, one and one half years—called away from his task in the busy day but under the blessing of God, permitted to "die in the harness."

For the two years just passed, Bro. Kirkpatrick suffered greatly as disease preyed upon his body, but he was cheerful and hopeful, and as devout as he was humble to the end of the way. His farewell word to his brethren in the ministry was full of assurance of a triumphant faith in his Lord; and tender love for those with whom he had served as true yoke fellow in this ministry for these twenty-three years. Two children, a son and a daughter of the wife of his youth live in Corrigan and they have been so trained that they are worthy and faithful members of our church. The good mother of these children went on to the good world thirteen years ago; and after her death, Bro. Kirkpatrick was married to Mrs. Alice Wallace with whom he lived in confidence and happiness till the day of his release from earth's duties. These three live to mourn his going away.

Bro. Kirkpatrick was, in one sense not a great preacher, but by a tender appealing message and a great warm heart he won many souls for Christ and the church; and by a life of solid piety and consecration he proclaimed the Gospel every day he lived. No man ever questioned his integrity; no man ever thought of him as other than a Christian gentleman. He served the hardest places without complaining; he told the story of the cross as best he could; he became a living epistle—and now, this may be said, "He was faithful unto death." We may with perfect assurance write it down that God gives him a crown of life." The tired body of the Circuit Rider rests in the grave, but we believe in our hearts, the spirit is with the Lord in whose service the faithful preacher found his highest joy.

REV. G. V. RIDLEY, M. D.

George Vincent Ridley was the fifth son of George Martin Ridley and Martha Young Ridley. He was born in Maury County, Tennessee, March 2, 1840 (possibly 1839) and died at Rosenberg July 21, 1914. The great-grand-father of George Vincent was Captain George Ridley, who came from Virginia to East Tennessee, later to Nashville, and there built what was known as the Block House, about 1790. The father, George Martin Ridley, with his family, came to Texas in 1852 and settled at San Marcos. After a few years the family moved to Kerr county. The mother was first a Cumberland Presbyterian, but became a Methodist with her husband. Both parents were devout and intelligent Christians. In the atmosphere of this godly home the son, when 16 years old, experienced the joys of conscious salvation; a few months later was licensed to preach and, at this early age, served, as supply, a short pastorate. Brother Ridley's itinerancy began in 1863. His recommendation for admission came from the Victoria District, which, at that time, was in the Texas Conference. His appointments have been as follows: 1864, Texana, junior preacher under O. A. Fisher; 1865-66, Eagle Lake and Colored Mission; 1867, no appointments of the conference on record; 1868, Columbia; 1869-70, Richmond and Wharton; 1871, Hempstead Circuit; 1872, Hempstead and Harrisburg. At the close of this year, at his own request, he was granted a location; but reentered the conference in 1878 and was appointed to Hempstead, which he served 1879-80. It is probable that he also served Richmond a second time, 1881. At the close of this year, because of physical conditions, he again entered the local ranks, remaining local until 1887. On his re-admission into the Texas Conference he transferred to the East Texas Conference and was appointed to First Church, Beaumont, which he served four years, 1888-91. His other pastorates have been as follows: Orange, 1892-93; Nacogdoches, 1894-95; Jefferson, 1896; Jacksonville, 1897; Trinity and Lovelady, 1898-99; Malakoff, 1900; Mineola, 1901-3; Gilmer, 1904-6; Mt. Pleasant, 1907-9; Rusk, 1910; Athens, 1911; Rosenberg, 1912-14. From the beginning Dr. Ridley's itinerancy to its close there is a period of fifty-one years. Deduct the nine years in which he was local and it will be seen that he was forty-two years a pastor. In his young manhood he prepared himself for the practice of medicine and dentistry. When not in the traveling connection he engaged in the practice of these professions at Hempstead. In him a strong body was joined to a good intellect. This was shown both by his long life and the unfagging activity of body and mind. He was a continuous worker. In the homes of his people—the rich and the poor, the well and the sick, but especially the poor and the sick—he was sure to go. That home not convenient to the church, whose inmates were not so situated as to be able to attend public worship, was sure to be visited by this pastor. Those who had moved into the community without bringing certificates of Church membership met in him a pastor who insisted that a Church home was necessary for a good life. His love for the pastorate never grew old. In his 75th year he was reading new books, making new sermons, visiting from house to house, attending carefully to the details of his charge and, when the face of the country was covered with water, he was the busiest of the busy in rescuing those in danger. It was said of him: "Had he been less concerned for others he might have lived longer." Rarely gifted in language and blessed with the habits of a student, he acquired a splendid working knowledge of Latin, Greek, German and Spanish. Perhaps it was his interest in young life that kept him young in spite of what he calendar said. His record for helping the young people that they should make the most of things most important was well sustained in his last pastorate. "The little children loved him," was the beautiful tribute paid him by many older people who, also, mourned his departure. Of the things that made him a suitable leader and companion for young people may be named this: He was a man of clean lips. Those who knew him well and were in close association with him, heard only chaste language. He spoke no words that brought a blush to the cheek or would tarnish the lips of a maiden. Dr. Ridley was twice married. His first wife was Miss Somie Jerome Menefee. The marriage took place June 7, 1863. Her death occurred in San Antonio August 9, 1887. In Beaumont November 26, 1888, he and Miss Cortez Keath were united in marriage. To this union four children were born. An infant son died in 1894. Three daughters, with their mother, are passing through a sense of loneliness which comes only to those deprived of a husband and father, whose relation to them may be expressed by the word "Beautiful." Sister Ridley, in a letter referring to his diaries, says: "I find touching entries which I wish you could read. They express a spirit of devotion, abiding faith, deep humility, earnestness of purpose. To me one of the loveliest of his virtues was the brotherly love that always abounded in his life."

CHAS. F. SMITH.

REV. WM. A. SAMPEY.

Rev. Wm. A. Sampey, son of John and Drucilla Sampey, was born near Bellville, Conecuh County, Alabama, January the 7, 1834. His parents were thrifty intelligent people. He affirmed that he united with the church so early that the time entirely escaped his memory.

At the age of 14 he was happily converted, but lapsed into sin, and walked in the paths of the backslider for four years, but in his 18th year, after days of meditation, he renewed his covenant with the Lord, seeking him earnestly in prayer for pardon and the restoration of the "Joy of Salvation," withdrawing himself for this purpose into a nearby forest. Immediately after this he felt a call to preach, and was licensed by his quarterly conference, after which he spent three years in school, also doing some preaching.

On December the 13, 1854, he was admitted on trial by the Alabama Conference, at Talladega and sent to Holmes, Miss., for the following year. At the next Conference he was sent to Grove Hill Circuit, and on December the 14, 1856, he was ordained deacon by Bishop Pierce. In 1857-8 he served St. Stephen Circuit, and on February the 2nd of this year he was married to Miss M. E. Wilson, daughter of Dr. C. H. Wilson. At the Conference in 1858 he was ordained Elder. In 1859 he served Pacagoula Circuit; 1860-1 Village Circuit; 1862 the Monroeville Circuit; Oakhill Charge 1863; Sapulpa Circuit 1865; Alexandra Circuit 1866; Snow Hill Circuit 1867; Ran Redge Circuit 1868-9; Westville Circuit 1870; Troy Circuit 1871; Olustie Circuit 1872. In 1873 he was transferred to the Northwest Texas Conference and stationed at Jacksboro; Weatherford 1874; Stephenville Circuit 1875; Catfield Circuit 1876.

At the Conference of 1876 he was transferred to the East Texas Conference, where he served the following charges:

Bellview Circuit 1877-8; Presiding Elder of San Augustine District 1879-1882; Tyler Station 1883-4; Crockett Station 1885; Troup and Overton 1886-7; Center and Timpson 1889; Orange 1890; Jacksonville 1891; a supernumerary 1892; San Augustine and Sexton 1898; Presiding Elder Beaumont District 1894-5-6; Beckville Circuit 1897. At the close of this year he was superannuated, and spent the following year as acting editor of the Timpson Times; in 1899 he moved with his family to Ellis county, where the remaining days of his life were spent.

Brother Sampey was a close student of all classes of literature; a man of learning; painstaking in the preparation of his sermons; putting his best efforts into all of his work, whether as pastor or presiding elder; and if his sermons were not always pleasing it was more than likely due to the depth of his thoughts and the eloquence of his words. His preaching was of the style of the scriptural evangelist, hence frequently immediate and visible results followed. As presiding elder he carefully trained the preachers and laymen to observe the law of the church, and the fruit of his official acts are still apparent in the San Augustine district, where I served under him. He did not pose as a superior, lording it over inferiors, but always dealt with his brethren thoughtfully, esteeming them his equals. His service to young preachers was of incalculable benefit. He was not a demonstrative Christian, but nevertheless a thoroughly religious man. For many years I knew him most intimately, being my presiding elder for four years, and all in all, I never had a better one. I was his presiding elder for three years, associating with him in many ways, and was intimate with his religious life. He was the most prayerful man I ever knew. While in my home I came to observe his habits of prayer, and soon discovered that he frequently spent as much as thirty minutes in secret devotion after family prayers. He was a man of good business ability, for while his salary was never large, yet at the Conference Anniversaries he was a most liberal contributor. Christian Education had in him a staunch friend.

From the turmoil and strife of earth he has departed, to be forever with the Lord; the ranks of the "Captain of our Salvation" have closed up, and we will push the battle until sin is overthrown; the spiritual tabernacle is completed; and the redeemed of the Lord shall come forth, shouting "Grace, grace unto it." May his surviving comrades wait and work, with unfaltering faith, until we meet beyond the river, where Brother Sampey's works do follow him.

J. T. SMITH.

REV. THOS. B. VINSON.

Rev. Thomas B. Vinson, son of Rev. W. D. and Eliza A. Vinson, was born five miles south of Iuka, Tishomingo County, Mississippi, August 30, 1857. He was baptized in infancy; and was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, when ten years of age. And in his unreserved consecration to the service of God, his first cry was: "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?" The answer came, he faltered not. And from that hour he delighted in the service of the family altar, assisting his two older brothers in leading his mother's family in worship.

Before he was seventeen years old he was licensed to exhort. And his first message to the public congregation was: "Prepare to meet thy God." And true to this scriptural injunction he ordered his life.

He was married to Miss Etta Lowery in the neighborhood in which he was reared, and came to Texas in the fall of 1876.

He was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of the Garden Valley Circuit in October 1885; and was ordained Deacon by Bishop Key, December 15, 1889, at Rusk. And the next fall, 1890, he was admitted on trial into the East Texas Conference at Tyler.

He was ordained Elder by Bishop Hendrix at Marshall, December 20, 1896. He served the following charges: First as a supply, Mt. Enterprise Circuit, 1890; Beckville Circuit, 1891; DeBerry Circuit, 1892; New York Circuit, 1893-94; Tyler Circuit, 1895-97; Edom Circuit, 1898-99; Daingerfield Circuit, 1900; Winfield Circuit, 1891-03; Teneha Circuit, 1904; Gilmer Circuit, 1905; Queen City Circuit, 1906; Shelbyville Circuit, 1907; appointed to Harleton Circuit for 1908, but was stricken down of nervous prostration March 20, of that year; and was relieved of his work for the remainder of that Conference year. And at the Conference that fall, being in no condition to resume work, he was given the superannuate relation, which he sustained until his discharge came from his labors on earth for promotion to the ranks above. He often assisted his brethren in their meetings when his health would permit. The records of the Conference show his fruits in the ministry, while the Recording Angel's book will show it as it will appear in the final judgment of the world, when many shall rise up and call the faithful preacher blessed.

His father and his two brothers and himself were all Methodist preachers. And on his mother's side back through four generations to the Simmons in South Carolina, he was in the line of succession of Methodist preachers. He therefore, both knew and loved the doctrine of his Church; and was thus prepared to give out no uncertain sounds. He coveted no secular pursuit, determining to know nothing among his people, "save Jesus Christ and Him crucified."

From eight years of age he was fatherless, but being blessed with a Christian mother, and the pious impress left on the family by his sainted father, he enlisted for service in the army of the great King.

It was not his policy to seek the line of least resistance; but that of duty. And in that, his zeal surpassed his strength, resulting in his ultimate and premature breakdown. And even after that, no cloud ever eclipsed his star of hope in God, but he endeavored to exemplify in his life the gospel he preached.

He exulted not in his own achievements, but like the Psalmist, his sentiment was: "My soul shall make her boast in the Lord; the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together."

Couched in the sincerity of his life was the desire to keep sacred the Golden Rule, and in this he expected the same at the hands of his fellowman. And making no compromise with the spirit of insincerity and not being infallible, at times he may have been somewhat exacting. But withal he strove to keep inviolable the two "great commandments," not simply to avert the Divine disapprobation, but rather because he loved to love. He bore the very tenderest love for his brethren in the ministry, and his people whom he served on his charges

During the years of forced retirement, he kept in close touch with the work of his church, and rejoiced greatly in the success and victories won by his brethren in their different fields of labor. He delighted in the fellowship of his brethren, and never allowed an opportunity of attending his Conference to pass by unimproved. Frail of body, and wasted by long years of suffering, he came to life's close with not a shadow over his sky for "he endured as seeing Him who is invisible." His last days were days of peaceful waiting, and to friends and loved ones who visited him, and waited on him, he talked calmly of the triumph that was just ahead, and the crown that was waiting. He sent messages of love to his brethren of the Conference, and said: "Tell them I love them, and the way is bright, and all is well," and with this spirit of assurance, he sheathed his sword and folded his hands in peaceful rest, and, on March 10, 1914, went up to find his place in the many-mansioned city.

His brother,

J. E. VINSON,

Of the North Texas Conference.

WILLIS E. WASHBURN.

Willis E. Washburn was born in Monroe County, Arkansas, October 4, 1862; was baptized in infancy; was converted and joined the M. E. Church, South, near Conroe, Texas, in 1892. That same year he was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference, J. C. Mickle, presiding elder. In 1894 he was admitted on trial in the Texas Conference. During his effective ministry he served among others, the following charges: Leon Mission, Waller Circuit, Durango Circuit, Buckholts Circuit, Lyons Circuit and Petteway Circuit. In 1907, on account of failing health, the Conference granted him a superannuated relation, which relation he sustained until his death, which occurred in Haskell, Texas, Jan. 20, 1914. He died of apoplexy, living only a few hours after being stricken. Brother Washburn was twice married. His first wife was Miss Emma Mitchell, who only lived about three years. His second wife was Miss Leola Pugh. To this union one child was born. Mother and child survive him. Quiet and unostentatious in his work and life; earnest and faithful in his ministry; sympathetic and helpful in his pastoral labors—he was respected and esteemed by all who knew him, and by him many were led to Christ.

His friends know that with him all is well. His body rests in Willow cemetery at Haskell, Haskell County. His record as a Christian and minister is on high; while his ransomed spirit is with Him, who bought him with, and cleansed him in, His own precious blood.

T. S. WILLIFORD.

MRS. JULIA A. DASHIELL.

Mrs. Julia A. Dashiell, widow of Rev. B. D. Dashiell, who was a member of the Texas Conference from 1852-1882, was born in Taylor Island, Md., December 27, 1832, and peacefully passed into rest at the home of her son, Hon. B. D. Dashiell, in Jewett, Texas, March 8, 1914. She was a member of the Travers family of Maryland, her ancestors having moved to that state in 1666. Having completed her education in Baltimore she was married to Rev. B. D. Dashiell in 1852 and they moved to Texas and her husband joined the Texas Conference the same year. To them God gave nine children, of whom Wm. Dashiell, B. D. Dashiell, L. T. Dashiell and Mrs. W. J. Bryan survive. The subject of this memoir was well born and bred and fulfilled in her life the expectation created by these fortunate facts. Love to God and devotion to the church were early instilled in her young mind. To these inspiring sentiments she held steadfastly to the end. She was a devout Christian, but not demonstrative. Soundly converted in girlhood; she knew by a rich personal experience the meaning of true spirituality. Her faith rested on the Rock, and the glow of a warm Christian love often thrilled her soul. She was no vague dreamer. She was practical, but deeply pious; bright and cheerful, but truly religious. She had decided opinions and strong determination. Her life was governed by principle and not by prejudice. Being a consecrated Christian, a loyal and fond wife, and believing in the efficiency of the itinerant system of preaching the gospel, she made willing self-denial of convenience and comfort, that her husband might render his best service to the church and humanity. As the wife of a pioneer Methodist preacher, she found it necessary to undergo many privations, and to be deprived of the companionship of her fond husband, but through it all she manifested a sublime courage and heroic fortitude, supported by strong faith in God. The writer who had formerly been her pastor assisted by Rev. C. F. Smith conducted the funeral service in the Giddings Memorial Methodist Church, Brenham, Texas, from which her husband was buried in 1882, and all that is mortal of her rests by him in the beautiful Prairie Lee Cemetery to await the general resurrection. Sister Dashiell is gone but her influence abides. May her mantle of strength and power fall upon her children.

S. W. THOMAS.

MRS. S. W. JONES.

Mrs. S. W. Jones was born in Carroll County, Georgia, May 6, 1836, and was converted in early life and joined the M. E. Church, South, in which she lived a faithful and devoted member until God called her home, May 14, 1914. Sister Jones was married to H. C. Wynn, of Carroll County, Georgia, October 4, 1855. Five children were born to them, the oldest died in infancy; four children survive her. Her first husband died December 9, 1875. She was married to Rev. S. W. Jones November 19, 1884. Brother Jones died February 15, 1907. Sister Jones was one of our claimants, the wife of a good man, and she was a model preacher's wife, and a light in the community where she lived. We miss her motherly advice. This scribe having been her pastor four years learned to look upon her as a mother, and she would speak to me as a son. But while we miss her, yet like her own dear mother, we know where to find her. She often talked to us about her heavenly home. She was only waiting the time and when the good Lord came for her she was ready. While she was not conscious at her death, she had talked of her heavenly home so often in health, and seemed so willing to go. She is not dead, but gone over to that sweet home that her Christ went to prepare for her. So, dear children, it won't be long until we will meet her in that home above. Be faithful until death and he will give you the crown of life, and we will never say mother is sick or dead. One who loved her.

S. N. ALLEN.

MRS. W. W. McANALLY.

Anna Jane McAnally (nee Wallace) was born in Pike County, Mississippi, in 1837, and departed this life at her home in Kilgore, Texas, April 25, 1914. In early life she was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in which Church she lived a consistent life until God called her home. In early life she was married to a Mr. Lowrie, and he having died she was later married to Rev. Willis Winston McAnally and for nearly a half century they faithfully fought life's battles together. In 1881 her husband was admitted on trial in the old East Texas Conference and for twenty years or more she stood loyally by his side as he wrought for the Master on various circuits in East Texas. No children were ever born to her, but her heart, like her Lord's went out in love and sympathy for the motherless and fatherless, and at tender age of two and four, Jack and Lula

Scott were adopted into her home, where they grew up under her motherly watchcare and godly training. Lula became the wife of Rev. J. W. Bridges and was called to her heavenly reward some years ago, and Jack McAnally resides on his farm in Rusk County. And besides these nearly a score of other orphan children were taken into her home and cared for at various times and places and thus she showed to the world that she cared for others more than self. Her last few years of earthly life were marked with affliction and much suffering, and especially the last two months she suffered intensely, being confined to her bed all the time. But her Bible was her constant companion and only a few days before her departure, when this writer read to her, "Let not your heart be troubled, ye believe in God, believe also in me," and "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain," with a trembling hand she brushed away the tears and in a broken tone said, "Praise the Lord." Surely "an entrance shall be ministered unto her abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."

A. J. McCrARY.

MRS. MINNIE ALICE MATNEY.

The shadows have fallen across the threshold of another parsonage home. There is another broken family circle in our brotherhood. A wife and mother, who loved tenderly, and who spared herself in no way in ministering to her loved ones, and who had grown tired and worn with the round of trying duties, has folded her hands peacefully and rests quietly in the care of God's angels, who watch the slumbering ashes of his saints.

Mrs. Minnie Alice Matney (Nee Ross) wife of our dear Brother H. A. Matney, was born April 10, 1868, and died at Grapeland October 6, 1914. She was married to H. A. Matney, March 5, 1891, and with him shared the lights and shadows of the itinerant ministry for nearly a quarter of a century. Six children were born to this union; two of them passing over ahead of their mother, to rest in the beautiful land of flowers, and the others, with the stricken husband and father, wait in glad hope of a blessed reunion in the land where "God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and where there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying."

Her husband and children watched the last struggle from day to day, and when at last the hour of triumph came, they felt that she merited well the release for which she had long waited, and the rest that was so sweet after "the suffering of this present time." She was converted when a child, and lived an earnest, quiet Christian life that was most impressive and influential to those who knew her best.

She lived for her children and home, and never spared herself in service to those whom she loved.

She is gone! Her face is missed—sadly missed from the charmed circle of her home. Her loved ones wait in vain for her coming, and the sound of her voice, and the welcome that she was so ready to give, when with them in the home, but they find comfort in the thought and expectation of a reunion in the land where goodbyes are never spoken.

O. T. HOTCHKISS.

MRS. T. P. SMITH.

Mary Isabella Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Long, Sr., was born in Bedford County (Now Marshall) Tennessee, February 15, 1848. Moved to Texas in 1850. Soon after the war between the states, January 8, 1866, she was very happily married to Mr. Thomas P. Smith in Smith County, Texas. They settled down on the farm, and being industrious hard working people, and sanely economical, they prospered from the beginning. Some three years later they were happily converted and joined the Methodist Church, and were active in the lay work of the Master from the beginning. Nine years later (1878) Brother Smith having yielded to his call to preach, was admitted on trial into the traveling connection by the East Texas Conference at Tyler, and sent to the Athens Circuit, Tyler District. It was no ordinary trial of faith in those days for a woman to leave a good home and become the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher. Circuits were large, population sparse, pay poor, and parsonages few, and mostly unfurnished, and moving had to be done in wagons. But none of these things daunted this courageous devoted Christian wife. Her husband was called of God to preach the gospel, and she was called of God to stand by his side and cheer him on, and make his ministry a success, and this she did, and rejoiced in his brilliant and marvelous career as a soul winner. Everywhere she was his good angel, journeying with him from circuit to circuit, and from circuit to station and from station to district, and from district back to station, until death claimed him from the pastorate of the First Methodist Church of Marshall, Texas, January 14, 1900. From then on the journey became a lonely one for Sister Smith, until the Father called her September 5, 1914, from her home in Tyler to join her sainted husband in the home of the good. Sister Smith was a good woman. She was quiet and reserved, but made sure to let her light shine. She had no children of her own, but devoted much of her married life to rearing orphan children who live now to call her blessed. She leaves beside these many relatives and friends to recount her deeds of love and well doing in Jesus. We laid her to rest beside her loved preacher in Woodlawn cemetery, Tyler, Texas, September 6th. There they will rest side by side until Jesus commands the reaping angels, "Gather my saints together unto me," and then they will rise to be forever with the Lord.

J. T. SMITH.

A PERSPECTIVE OF THE PLAN OF THE UPPER HALF OF THE 132 ACRE CAMPUS OF S. M. U.

MANY of the larger universities are now seriously handicapped because they have erected building after building without a definite plan for future development. Each building has been located as though it was to be the last. The result has been not only a hodgepodge of architecture, but also a most inconvenient arrangement of buildings. For example, at least two universities which are planning for women find that the single dormitory first erected is now so surrounded by academic buildings that a new site for such dormitories must be selected.

The topography of the campus of Southern Methodist University is such as to suggest a particularly pleasing and convenient grouping of buildings. Dallas Hall has been made the dominant feature by its architecture, central location and topographical elevation. The railway, the well and powerhouse are thrown into a subordinate but most convenient location.

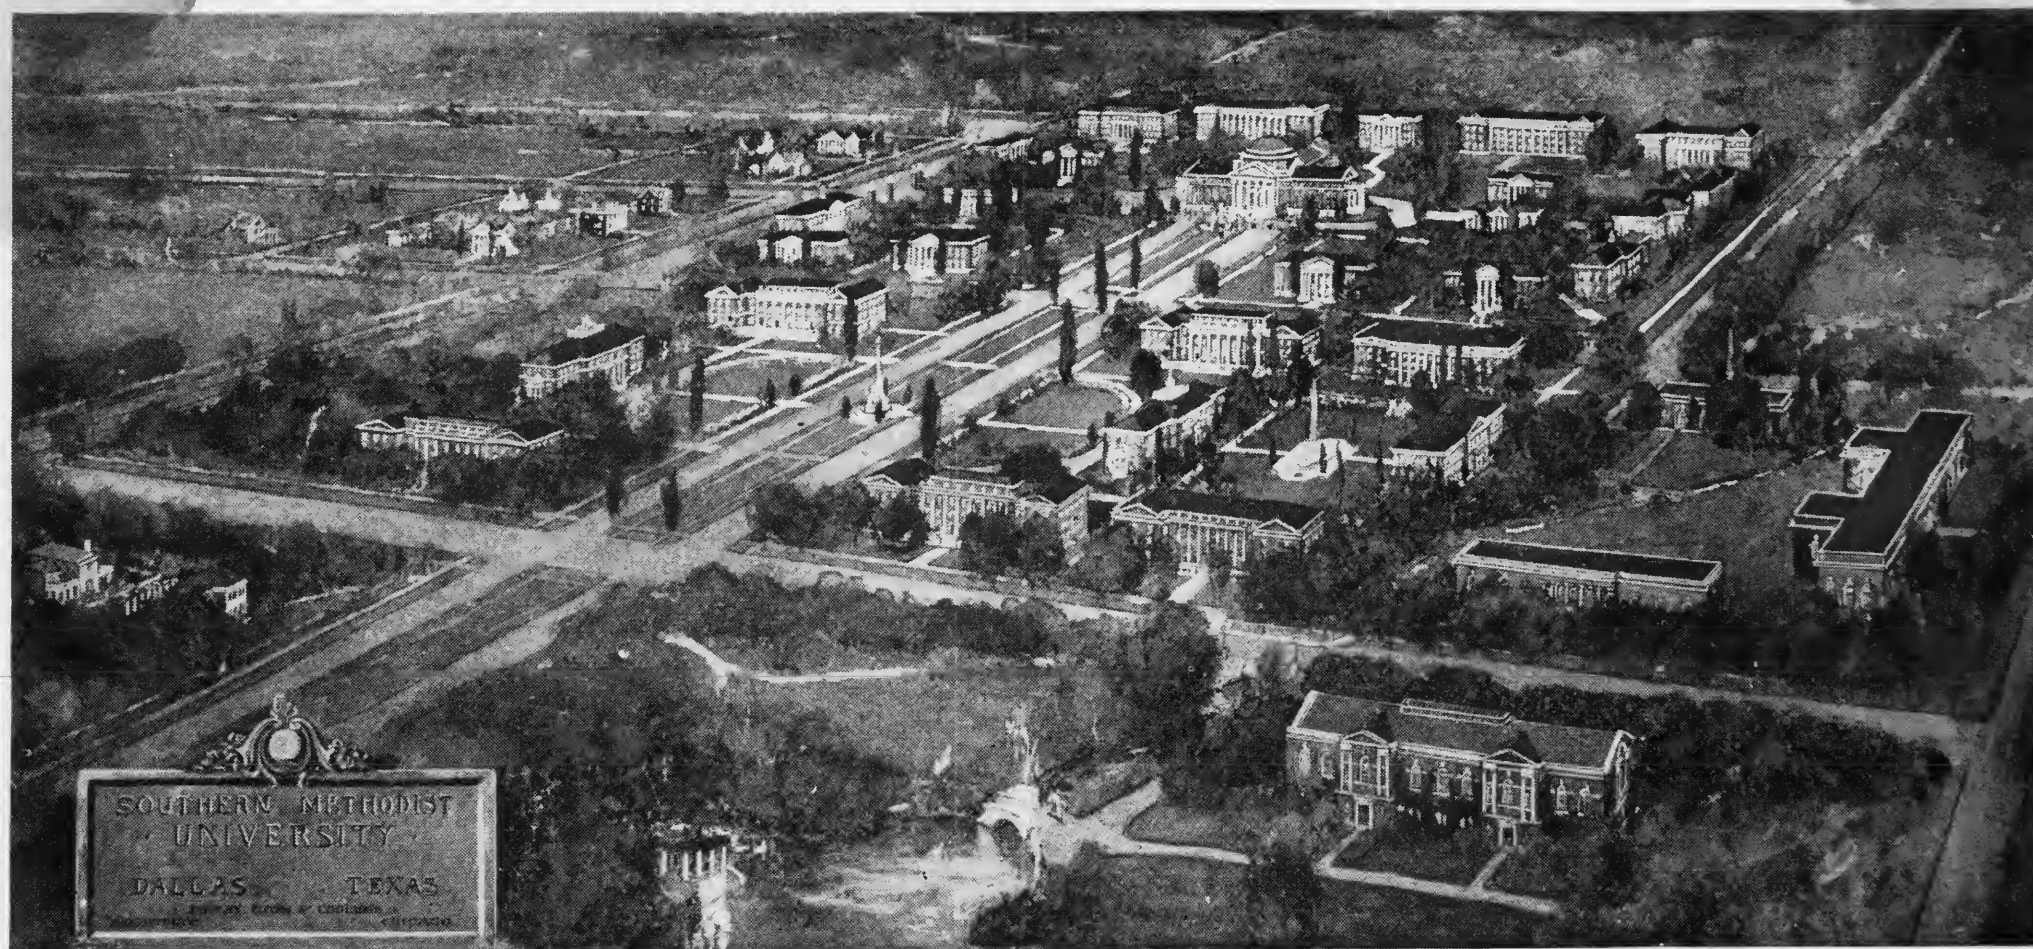

This location of the mechanical equipment naturally suggests the setting apart of its immediate environs for the engineering department. This in turn suggests the location of the laboratories for physics and chemistry. At the north end of the campus and back of Dallas Hall fifteen acres have been set apart for women's dormitories, fine arts and domestic science buildings. Between these and the dormitories for men will be the library and the various academic buildings. The departments in which men and women are equally interested are equally convenient to both. The dormitories for men are in groups on each side of the broad drive from Highland Park to Dallas Hall.

Only one of these dormitories has been erected, and many years must pass before the view here given can be even approximately realized. Our chief concern is to so design and so locate each building that it may form a part of an harmonious whole. Our architects who have worked for Harvard for twenty years, who planned Leland Stanford, who have done practically all the work for Chicago for two years, say that no university in America is so well planned.

The great problem before Methodism of the West is to make real the view here presented. Those who have seen what has already been done are unanimous in declaring that it can and must be done.—Pres. Hyer in Texas Christian Advocate.

ROGRESS of Southern Methodist University

Whereas at the Annual Conferences of 1910, Southern Methodist University existed only in the minds and hearts of a number of aggressive and progressive preachers and laymen, the Conferences of 1914 find:

 A beautiful campus of 132 acres with two buildings completed at a cost of $450,000.00.

 and a number of smaller tracts over the State.
520 acres of land in edge of the city of Dallas,

 More than $130,000.00 of Endowment Funds invested in best securities.

 Three quarters of a million dollars of subscriptions, notes and miscellaneous properties.

In addition to these items, is the fact that the recent General Conference has made Southern Methodist University the chief Educational Institution of the church West of the Mississippi, and have located therein a great school of Theology sharing equally with the University at Atlanta the support of the Church at large.

A visit will convince, that not only has Southern Methodist University become a very present and real success—that its administration has been wise, economic and successful, but also that its future is to be identified with the progress of the Church west of the Mississippi.
